

WHITE LADY FUNERALS a woman's understanding

Our aim is provide excellent funeral service to families of every race and religion. We are a dedicated team of women who offer the assurance of absolute support and professional attention with genuine care.

We are committed to the training of staff in all areas of funeral service with the vision of providing the best service available in this honourable profession.

Because our families are our highest priority, our mission is to provide this service with honesty, care and respect.

"I have worked for White Lady for many years and everyone who sees you in the uniform recognises who you are and appreciates the approach we take and the work we do. I'm proud of the way we lead the industry by always adding those extra touches to make a difference to families."

Sharyn Schubert, Regional Manager, SA.
